Re: United States v. Justin Patterson,
19 Cr. 231 (CM)

Application granted. The 12/30/19 conference is adjourned without date, pending the outcome of the Government's appeal.

SO ORDERED.

CATHY SEIBEL, U.S.D.J.

12/27/19

Dear Judge Seibel:

The Government writes on behalf of both parties respectfully to ask that the Court adjourn Monday's status conference sine die.

On October 30, 2019, this Court orally ordered the suppression of the gun found in Justin Patterson's car. The Court ordered the parties to appear for a status conference on December 3, 2019, which status conference the Court adjourned to Monday, December 30, 2019, at 2:45 pm.

A few minutes ago, the Government filed a notice of appeal of that suppression order.¹ The parties agree that time is therefore automatically excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, which provides that "[t]he following periods of delay shall be excluded in computing time within which an information or an indictment must be filed, or in computing the time within which the trial of any such offense must commence: ... delay resulting from any interlocutory appeal." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(C).

In light of the filing of the notice of appeal, the parties believe that Monday's status conference is unnecessary, and therefore ask that it be adjourned sine die, and be rescheduled after the resolution of the appeal. The parties propose jointly updating the Court about the status of the appeal every three months. Additionally, the parties agree that they may seek a conference before the Court regarding the conditions of Patterson's release, which are not the subject of the Government's appeal.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions or issues.

Respectfully submitted,
